

How to Collect Pictures

Easy English

To help you to work out the things you would like to do in your life we would like you to take photos or show us things that are important to you.

You should collect photos or objects that are important to you.

Choose the things that you would like to take photos of by yourself.

You can take photos on your camera or phone.

You can bring old photos from home.

You can find pictures on the internet.

You can cut pictures out of a magazine.

You can draw pictures.

If you want to take a photo of a person, you need to ask them if it is okay.

There are no right or wrong pictures as long as they mean something to you.
