

_____ is participating in a program called Picture my Future.

- As part of the program, this person will choose pictures, photos and objects to show other people what he or she wants for the future. These images will be collated into a book, album or online album and used as part of the wider planning process.
- A support person will come to talk to the person about:
 - All the things he or she enjoys doing and wants to continue doing.
 - Things that he or she don't like doing.
 - New things he or she would like to have.
 - New things he or she would like to try.
 - New places he or she would like to go.
- The person may ask you for assistance with taking photos of things that are important to him or her, or that represent things he or she would like for the future. If this is the case, it is important that the person chooses the things he or she would like to photograph without assistance.
- Images can be new or old photos, pictures from a magazine or the internet, or objects.
- The person will need to take or collect up to 20 pictures of things that are important to him or her over the next 10 days. The date of the next meeting will be _____.
- Before the next meeting, all the photos or images will need to be printed or organised into an online album. The person may need your assistance with this task.
